Scripture is so delightfully ___________________________ that every other woman in the Gospel is named Mary.

Mary and Mary are to be commended for their ___________________________.

Jesus needed no assistance in exiting the ___________________________.

but the Marys needed assistance to gain access.

No more need to hide. That’s what we do. We hide the root cause of death – our ___________________________.

The reproach of sin can be denied only so long. So, we ___________________________ ourselves.

“He will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the shroud that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up _______ forever.”

Christ bore the sin of all ___________________________ so that all might be freed of death’s shroud.

This is what awaits us on the ___________________________.

How wonderful it is that we are told that He wipes away tears from all faces.

There you see the tender ___________________________ of God.

Death is defeated. Sin is forgiven. Your reproach is gone. Hold your head ___________________________.
