

Sunday School Sermon Guide
Village Lutheran Church – Ladue, Missouri

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost
July 25th, 2021

Word Bank:

security need motives Gentile neighbors
Father rooted fullness refuge unimaginable

Our God promises to hear our prayers, and yet, we usually pray when we _____ something.

“Prayer: The last _____ of a scoundrel.”

It’s hard for scoundrels to pray from a place of _____.

Paul writes to a congregation of mostly _____ believers, who by God’s grace have heard and believed the good news.

We all bear the family name of our Creator, who is the _____ of all the living.

To be filled with the fullness of God is to know that God has done the _____ by sending His Son to take the place of scoundrels.

Our Father has _____ and grounded us in the love of Christ.

God does more than we could ever ask or understand, even when our _____ are impure.

When we know Christ’s love and peace, we are filled with the _____ of God.

In the communion of saints, the most distant of _____ is equal to the closest of friends.