These are _____ days, and the worst part is that there's no end in sight.

Our response to stress usually falls into one of three categories: Fight, flight, or _____.

The harder we try to break free, the more we fail, and the more we neglect our daily _____.

Our reading begins after Jesus has called his first three _____.

Philip has been formed by God, and now God has come in the flesh to _____ His life.

Nathanael is an _____ man.

Jesus is not just another _____ calling hopeful Jews to follow Him.

Jesus affirms that a faith that began with the mundane will culminate with the _____.

Christ has humbled Himself to enter our _____ world for our benefit.

Jesus continues to _____ you to come and see what He has done.
