Lent is a season of repentance and _____.

Our _____ always leads us right back to where we started.

Satan never has to get all that _____, because we always give him plenty to work with.

It's the First Sunday in Lent, and that means we find Jesus in the _____ being tempted by Satan.

Jesus' wandering is not caused by sin, but _____ to His Father's will and the leading of the Holy Spirit.

All glory and majesty belong to Jesus, and yet He embraced the humility of dwelling with the _____ of His creation.

Jesus embodies all the _____ of a man and all the power of God.

The Son of God has come near to break the _____ of sin and death.

Christ has come and has gone through every _____ we might face.

We do not _____ forever, because the Lord has come.
