If you would have peace, prepare for ____________________________

It understands that man cannot quell the ____________________________ nature.

Zechariah says that Jesus cuts off the chariot, the war horse, and the bow of warfare. It sounds as if we are ____________________________

“He will proclaim peace to the nations.” Jesus does not depend on the chariot, war horse, or bow. He does battle by His ____________________________ Jesus has a dominion without boundaries. It is from sea to sea and to the ends of the earth. And it embraces all as He proclaims peace to the ________________

Both what is true now and what will be true in the life to come is ours because of the ____________________________ of His covenant with us.

There is a very real war, a spiritual war, that rages around us with _____________________________ ramifications.

The Lord prepares you for that war by placing in your mouth the blood of His
______________________________

Zechariah calls you “prisoners of ____________________________” because of the certainty of Christ’s victory in this war.

Rejoice greatly! Raise a shout! Cry out, “_____________________________!”